

Mrs. Stephen Eely, Vancouver

Seven Sons in Service

Mrs. Stephen Eely says:

"Like All Mothers I Want My Boys Home"

THE first Victory Ship launched from the West Coast Shipyards, B.C., was sponsored by Mrs. Stephen Eely, mother of seven sons serving in various units of the army. Mrs. Eely speaks for mothers of all boys on active service when she urges you to buy Victory Bonds.

Mrs. Eely says:

"Just like all mothers, I want my boys back home soon . . . that's the reason why I think it is so important for all of us at home to buy Victory Bonds.

"Four of my boys are overseas, and one is going soon. They tell me not to worry, but how can a mother help worrying about her sons? But you don't have quite such an anxious time when you know that they will have better weapons to fight with, and more of them than the other side.

"It's not easy to save these days, but I try to put aside every cent I can, and tell my boys to do the same, because Victory Bonds will be comfortable things to have when they come home.

"After all, it shouldn't be hard for us at home to give up a few things to buy Bonds, when we think of how much our boys are giving up. Mine all write and tell me how grand it will be to get home and taste my stews again. 'Speed the Victory' is their slogan, and my slogan too."
